
THE ART OF RACE

A Series of Dialogues Hosted by
The Center For Reconciliation & The RISD Museum

Join the Center for Reconciliation (CFR) and the RISD Museum for new sessions in the “Art of Race” series. Each program features works from the Museum’s collection with an opportunity to join in a conversation about the intersection of art and race. Experts from the Museum and the CFR share perspectives and ask questions inspiring participants to look deeply at what these works of art represent and to consider the people, places, and objects depicted. Registration is required and spaces are limited.
